

Volunteer Opportunities to Help Make Sure the Will of the People Decides the Election

Poll Worker

- What: Staff polling locations for your county Supervisor of Elections to make sure the election runs smoothly and all voters have an opportunity to cast their ballot.
- Who: Any registered voter who lives in the county and can dedicate the time to attend training and work full days during early voting and/or on election day. Usually paid.
- How: Submit an application to your county Supervisor of Elections or sign up at <https://www.powerthepolls.org/>

Nonpartisan Poll Monitor

- What: Help voters feel welcome at polling locations and advocate for themselves to protect their rights. Be the eyes and ears on the ground at the polls to watch for voter suppression.
- Who: Anyone committed to nonpartisan voter protection who can serve a 4-hour shift outside during early voting and/or on election day. Usually volunteer (incentives may be provided).
- How: Attend training, complete the nonpartisan agreement, and sign up for a shift at a polling location near you. Sign up at bit.ly/FloridaPollMonitorTraining

Election Protection Legal Observer

- What: Observe for voting rights issues at priority voting locations and support the Florida voting rights community to gather evidence and respond to problems as needed.
- Who: Clergy, lawyers, law students, paralegals, experienced legal observers, and staff or leadership of Election Protection partner organizations, who have access to a car, and can serve as a roving monitor at early voting and election day polling locations. Usually volunteer.
- How: Attend training, complete the nonpartisan agreement, and Common Cause will connect you with a shift. Sign up at bit.ly/EP-Legal-Observers

Nonpartisan Canvassing Board Monitor

- What: Observe County Canvassing Boards during vote counting, equipment and machine testing, recounts, election certification, and audits.
- Who: Anyone committed to fair elections who has a flexible weekday schedule and can attend 2-6 hour public meetings (indoors). Usually volunteer.
- How: Attend training and All Voting Is Local will provide everything you need for next steps. Sign up at <https://bit.ly/canvassboard>

Legal Monitors at the Polls and at Canvassing Boards

- What: Support rapid evaluation of and response to election threats; assess polling locations for disability access compliance; attend and advocate at county canvassing board meetings.
- Who: Lawyers (do not need to be licensed in Florida). Volunteer/pro-bono.
- How: Sign up here to be a legal monitor at the polls: bit.ly/Voting-Rights-Legal-Monitor, or here to be a legal monitor for canvassing boards: bit.ly/Canvassing-Board-Legal-Monitor

Mobilization Volunteer

- What: Be ready to mobilize to resist threats to our democracy before or after Election Day.
- Who: Anyone who believes our elections should be decided by the will of the people.
- How: Sign up here bit.ly/MobilizationVolunteerSignUp

Note: All of the above opportunities are nonpartisan. Political parties and candidates have partisan volunteer opportunities available during elections, including poll watchers, poll greeters, and legal observers. Please contact your party or candidate for more information about those partisan opportunities.
